Head Coach Barry Mohun

Barry Mohun enters his 12th season as the Head Coach of the Shelton State Buccaneers. His overall record at Shelton is 284-86 (.767). Under Mohun's leadership, the Buccaneers have posted seven consecutive 20-win seasons, and claimed the state and regional championships in 2003, 2005, 2006, 2008, and 2009. They also made National Tournament appearances in 2005, 2008, and 2009. Mohun has twice been the Alabama Community College Conference Coach of the Year, along with District 10 Coach of the Year for the National Junior College Athletic Association and 2009 Birmingham Tip Off Club Coach of the Year. Prior to Shelton, Mohun was head coach at Prattville High School, leading the Lions to a 6A Final Four AHSAA finish in his final year. Mohun has also served as head coach for Paxton High School in Florida, Saint James in Montgomery, and T.R. Miller of Brewton.

Mohun is a native of Montgomery where he played for the Sidney Lanier Poets. He played two years for Huntingdon College before finishing his career and earning All-Conference honors at Belhaven College in Jackson, Mississippi. Mohun holds a BS degree from Belhaven and a Masters degree from The University of Louisiana at Monroe, where he served as a graduate assistant coach for the Indians. Coach Mohun also serves as Shelton State's Athletic Director. He is married to the former Susan Coker, Assistant Dean of Student Services at Shelton State. They have three children, April (14), Amanda (12), and Austin (11).

Assistant Coach Tim Law

Timothy Law is in his sixth season as assistant coach for the Buccaneers, however he is not a newcomer to the program. Law was a member of the Shelton State Basketball Team for the 1995-97 seasons under Coach Mark Cornelius. Coach Law still holds the Shelton school record as the All-Time Assist Leader. After graduating from Shelton State, Coach Law signed to play at Centenary College in Shreveport, Louisiana. While at Centenary, Law served as team captain and was named to the Trans America Athletic Conference All-Academic Team. Law earned his B.S. Degree in Health and Exercise Science in 2000. In addition to his duties as assistant coach, Coach Law serves as Athletic Programs Specialist for the College. He is a native of York and a graduate of Sumter County High School. He and his wife Josette have three daughters, Tanisha (15), Arkadia (10), and Nyla (8), and one son, Timothy Junior ~ TJ (3).

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

ABOUT SHELTON STATE

To anyone unfamiliar with the Alabama Community College System, Shelton State Community College enters its fourth decade of service as a premier example of Alabama's community colleges in Tuscaloosa, the state, and beyond.

Shelton State Community College was established by resolution of the Alabama State Board of Education on January 1, 1979. That resolution combined two existing institutions: Shelton State Technical College, established in 1952, and the Tuscaloosa branch campus of Brewer State Junior College, an institution whose main campus was located in Fayette, Alabama. In 1994, Shelton State Community College consolidated with C. A. Fredd State Technical senior college or university and complete the baccalaureate degree. The Associate in Applied Science Degree and the certificate programs are designed for students who plan to seek employment based upon the competencies and skills attained through those programs of study.

Shelton State Community College offers financial assistance to eligible students to help pay the cost of their education. Financial aid is designed to supplement the family's ability to finance the student's educational expenses. Shelton State is approved for Federal Financial Aid, Veterans Benefits, Vocational Rehabilitation Training, and Alabama Prepaid Affordable College Tuition (PACT). The institution also awards state and private scholarships.

College, another public two-year college located in Tuscaloosa. Previously, C. A. Fredd State Technical College was recognized as one of the nation's Historically Black Colleges and Universities. Shelton State Community College maintains that identity and continues the specific HBCU mission of promoting educational access and opportunity for all students in a culturally diverse community. The College currently provides a variety of offerings on both the Martin and the C.A. Fredd Campuses.

Shelton State Community College is accredited by the Commission of Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award the Associate in Arts Degree, the Associate in Science Degree, and the Associate in Applied Science Degree. The College also offers two types of certificate programs: certificate programs 30-60 semester hours in length and short-term certificate programs 9-29 semester hours in length. The Associate in Arts Degree and the Associate in Science Degree are designed for students who wish to complete the freshman and sophomore years at Shelton State Community College and transfer to a Title IV Federal Financial Aid Programs, which are available, include Federal Pell Grant, Federal Work-Study (FWS), Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG), and the Academic Competitive Grant (ACG). Shelton State is also approved to participate in the Alabama Student Assistant Program (ASAP). Shelton State Community College currently does not participate in any of the federal loan programs. Shelton State, however, is approved for deferment of previous loans.

Serving as a vital link to the West Alabama community, Shelton State provides a wide range of other services and offerings. In 1997, in recognition of its contributions to and potential in art, music, dance, and theatre, the Alabama Legislature, by joint resolution, designated Shelton State Community College as the Alabama Community College of the Fine Arts. As its mission, the College is to provide accessible, inclusive educational and cultural opportunities for students and citizens of Alabama through quality instruction and innovative arts programming. As a vital link to the business community, The West Alabama Center for

ABOUT SHELTON STATE

Workforce Development was developed to ensure a coordinated effort between Shelton State Community College, business and industry, and workforce agencies in the West Alabama area. In collaboration with the Region 3 Workforce Development Council and the Governor's Office of Workforce Development, the Center coordinates programs which provide instruction of basic skills to entry level workers as identified by local business and industry for entry level jobs in their companies.

In the area of Adult Education, the College focuses on assisting adults in its five-county service area in obtaining knowledge and skills for employment and self-sufficiency. Instruction is provided via traditional and online classes. GED and Career Readiness Credential preparation, graduation exam help, and skills remediation are also offered at no cost to students. In addition, English as a Second Language (ESL) classes, and Project Literacy United States (PLUS) tutoring are offered.

Shelton State Community College also takes the lead in providing a wide variety of personal interest offerings to all ages through its Community Education and the Larry Mund Lifelong Learning programs. Courses include instruction in dance, academic enrichment for children, fencing, computer skills, floral design, carpentry, and exercise classes to name a few.

Participation in student life and campus activities is also encouraged at Shelton State. Along with the College's local, regional and national athletic success, other student organizations include Shelton Ambassadors, Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society, the Courier Student Newspaper, Corsair Fencing Club, the Student Action Team, and the Shelton Singers.

ATHLETIC HIGHLIGHTS

The Lady Bucs women's basketball team has won the Alabama Community College Conference (ACCC) championship the last four years. To wrap up the 2008-09 season, the Lady Bucs finished sixth nationally at the NJCAA National Championships.

The men's basketball team begins the 2009-2010 season in defense of their back-to-back ACCC titles. The Bucs have also won the conference crown five of the last seven seasons and advanced to the NJCAA Tournament three times.

The Bucs baseball team has claimed the ACCC title the last three seasons and advanced to play in the NJCAA nationals as well.

The Shelton State Cheerleaders have claimed back-to-back national championships in the junior college division of the UCA Championships.

Men's Basketball Coach Barry Mohun was awarded Coach of the Year honors in the ACCC, the NJCAA District 22 and the Birmingham Tip Off Club in 2009.

Women's Basketball Coach Madonna Thompson was named the ACCC and the NJCAA District Coach of the Year in 2009.

Baseball Coach Bobby Sprowl was named Coach of the Year in the ACCC and in January 2010 will be inducted into the Alabama Baseball Hall of Fame.

Shelton State Softball set a school record for 35 wins in a season in 2008-09 under new head coach Buddy Boyle.
